Essay Questions

Current APIA Youth Program Coordinator and steering committee members will review your application. Please speak from your heart and be yourself! A council's diverse talents, values and energy can bring refreshing and effective ideas that can address the needs of their communities.

On a separate sheet, please answer the following 3 essay questions in no more than 1-2 paragraphs per question.

1. Please share some of your ideas or suggestions to address issues that are impacting youth your community?
2. The 13 tribes represented by APIA are Akutan, Atka, Belkofski, False Pass, King Cove, Nelson Lagoon, Nikolski, Pauloff Harbor, Sand Point, St. George, St. Paul, Unalaska, and Unga. As a member of the RYAC, you would be fulfilling the mission of APIA in these communities. This includes making decisions on programs, projects and activities that impact teens and young adults. How do you see yourself being a leader and advocating for teens and young adults in your community?
3. Please share something about yourself that will help us get you know you better!

By submitting an entry, you grant Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association, Inc. (APIA) the right to use, edit and disseminate submissions in print, online, and through other forms of media for educational, public service or health awareness purposes. By submitting an entry, you release APIA and its agents and employees from all claims, demands, and liabilities whatsoever in connection with the above.
