Event Description

APIA is inviting you to a Recreation & Resilience Camp for our Native Youth in the Anchorage area. This event is built around the reawakening of or Unangax resilience, traditional knowledge, and physical activity as a means of preventative factors among Unangax Youth and Young Adults. The participation in this event is free. Travel to and from APIA can be arranged, and a snack (as it's after school) will be provided by APIA.

The participants will have an opportunity to discover and practice their own methods of resilience and learn new ones through the help of a recreational therapist and youth services coordinator.

The participants will need:

- Clothes easy to move in
- Shoes appropriate for hiking/athletic activities
- Clothes that can be stained or torn and can provide protection during outdoor and recreational activities
- A windbreaker/ warm jacket

The risks of participating in this event may include physical injury. Despite careful and proper preparation and instruction, there is still a risk of serious injury, hazards, and dangers including, but not limited to:

- faulty equipment and/or premises defects
- loss of control, colliding with other participants or stationary objects, recklessness or horseplay, attempting a maneuver beyond one's skill level
- head/brain injury, spinal cord injury, broken/fractured bones

In this regard, it must be recognized that it is impossible for Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association (APIA) to guarantee absolute safety.

Consent and Assent to Participate

General Waivers of Liability and Releases

Please read this form carefully and be aware that in signing this form and participating in this activity, you will be expressly assuming the risk and legal liability and waiving and releasing all claims for injuries, damages or loss which you and/or your minor child/ward might sustain as the result of participating in any and all activities connected and associated with this activity.

I recognize and acknowledge that there are certain risks of physical injury to participants in this activity and I voluntarily agree to assume the full risk of any injuries, damages or loss, regardless of severity, that my minor child/ward and/or I may sustain as a result of participating in this activity. I further agree to waive and relinquish all claims that I and/or my minor child/ward and/or any related third party may have (or accrue to me and/or my minor child/ward) as a result of participating in this activity against APIA including its officers, agents, directors, volunteers and employees (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Parties".)

By signing below, I do hereby fully release and forever discharge the Parties from any and all claims for injuries, damages or losses that my minor child/ward and/or I may have or which may accrue to me and/or my minor child/ward and arising out of, connected with, or in any way associated with this activity.

Medical Emergency Release

I understand and agree that Parties may not have medical personnel available for this activity, including at any location of the activity or during the transportation to or from the activity or any adjunct thereto. I understand and expressly agree that Parties are granted permission to authorize emergency medical treatment, if necessary, and that such action by Parties shall be subject to the terms of this Medical Emergency Release. I understand and agree that Parties assume no responsibility for any injury or damage to me or my property and/or my minor child and his or her property or to others which might arise out of or in connection with such authorized emergency medical treatment.

Media Release

On occasion, the APIA staff may film and take photos of participants enrolled in this event. Please be aware that these photos are for APIA use only and may be used in pamphlets, flyers, brochures, and digital stories on the APIA website or Facebook. By signing below, I grant my permission for APIA, a non-profit organization the right to incorporate my and/or my child's (children's) photograph and/or personal experience and/or video footage taken of you as a result of your participation (alone or together with other materials), in whole or in part in approved APIA activities.

Assessment Agreement

This event is an initiative to promote health and wellness and prevent suicide and substance abuse in Alaska youth. To continue and sustain this initiative in the future, feedback will be gathered from the participants within the framework of this project. Participants will be chosen at random to be interviewed during this event by the APIA staff to collect the feedback and relevant information. This will assist in assessing the needs of youth in our communities, as well as help create more events and opportunities for Alaska youth in the future. The reporting participant's identity will be kept anonymous and confidential. The participant's identity will not be released without their written permission except if the participant is a minor and the information is requested by their parent/ legal guardian or as required by law. Legal exceptions include: court order, clear or imminent danger to the participant or someone else, and suspicion of child, elder and/or dependent adult abuse. By signing below, I grant my permission for APIA to interview my child (children) and/or me for the purpose of collecting important data to improve our programs' work around prevention and intervention strategies.

Waiver of Liability Related to COVID-19 or another Communicable Disease

The Coronavirus, has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization. COVID-19 is reported to be extremely contagious with the capacity to transmit from person-to-person through respiratory droplets and/or by contact with contaminated surfaces and objects. APIA will follow any and all recommended guidelines for limiting the transmission of COVID-19 as set forth by the City of Anchorage and the Dena'ina/Athabascan Tribe of Anchorage. APIA will implement and strictly enforce these guidelines among the attendees, and staff during the Recreation & Resilience Camp in Anchorage, AK.

Even with these measures, it is not possible to completely prevent the presence of the disease. APIA and contracted event organizers cannot guarantee that you will not become exposed to or contract COVID-19, or another communicable disease, while in Anchorage, or while participating in the Recreation & Resilience Camp. Attending the event could increase your risk and your child(ren)'s risk of contracting COVID-19, or another communicable disease.

By registering for this conference on behalf of yourself or your minor child(ren), you acknowledge that by choosing to attend the Recreation & Resilience Camp you may be exposing yourself, or your minor child(ren), to and/or increasing your risk of contracting COVID-19 or another communicable disease.

And in order to take all precautions for yourself and others, you attest that:

- In the last 14 days leading up to the event, you have not experienced any of the following symptoms: cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fever, chills, body aches for unknown reasons, sore throat, or new loss of taste or smell.
- You have not traveled internationally within 14 Days prior to the event date.
- You do not believe you have been exposed to someone with a suspected and/or confirmed case of COVID-19 within 14 Days prior to the event date.
- You have not been diagnosed with COVID-19 and not yet cleared as non-contagious by state or local public health authorities within 14 Days prior to the event date.
- You are following all CDC recommended guidelines and limiting your exposure to COVID-19 or another communicable disease.

On my behalf and/or on behalf of my child(ren), I hereby release and discharge APIA., its officers, directors, managers, officials, trustees, agents, employees, and other representatives from all liabilities, claims, demands, and causes of action in connection with exposure, infection, or spread of COVID-19, or another communicable disease that may be incurred in connection with my and/or my child(ren)'s attendance at the Recreation & Resilience Camp. I understand that this waiver means I give up my right to bring any claims including for personal injury, disease, death, or any other loss, including but not limited to claims of negligence, and give up any claim I may have to seek damages, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen. I understand and agree that this release includes any claims based on the actions, omissions, or negligence of APIA, its officers, directors, managers, officials, trustees, agents, employees and other representatives, whether a COVID-19 infection occurs before, during, or after participation in any APIA event.

In signing this Consent and Assent to Participate form I acknowledge and represent that I have read and fully understand the above important information, warning of risk, waiver and release of all claims and assumption of risk. I further covenant and agree that for the considerations stated above my child, any related third party, and/or I will not sue the Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association and affiliates, its members individually, its officers, agents, or employees for any claim for damages arising or growing out of my child's and/or my voluntary participation in above said activities. Further, I understand that this Assent and Consent to Participate and covenant not to sue shall be effective during the entire period of my enrollment at the institution or participation in risk related activity.
