6. Release of Information

Your signature on this application gives the Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association, Inc. permission to ask for:

- Information about your finances and benefits
- Information about your income
- Information about your employment
- Information about your utility/heating costs and usage and billing history with your utility or heating vendor
- Information about your citizenship and personal history

This information is only used in the administration of services within the Department of Family & Community Development's Employment, Training & Related Services Division at the Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association and will not be released to any other person or agency outside of the Employment, Training & Related Services Division, unless it directly relates to your application for services and benefits. This Release expires one year from signature date.

I have read the Release of Information section of the application and I understand it, including fraud and penalty provisions, as described in this application.

7. Statement of Truth

To receive assistance, you must agree to all of the statements below and sign and date this form.

- I am requesting services from the Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association's Employment, Training & Related Services Division.
- I understand that information on this application will be used for determination of eligibility for programs in APIA's Employment, Training & Related Services Division.
- I understand that I must currently live in the home for which I am requesting energy assistance.
- I understand that I must notify APIA if I move, my household members change, or if there are changes to my income including assistance received from other agencies.
- I understand that an APIA representative may call my home and may contact other people in order to verify the information I have provided.
- I understand that information I give may be verified by computer cross-matching with other agencies (Courtview, State of Alaska Public Assistance, Selective Service Registration, Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend, Tribal Enrollment).
- I understand that intentionally providing false information constitutes fraud and will result, at a minimum, in termination from any APIA programs for which I have been found eligible. As a result of fraud, I understand that I will be required to reimburse APIA for any funding it has provided to (or on behalf of) me.
- I understand that the following will be explained to me at the time of intake: eligibility requirements of the programs, the services available, my rights and responsibilities, confidentiality, and how to appeal a decision by the program.
- I authorize the Alaska Department of Labor to release information about my eligibility for Unemployment Insurance and work history to APIA.
- I authorize APIA to communicate with my vendor(s) and other agencies on my behalf as it relates to the Energy Assistance Program.
- I also understand that knowingly and willingly providing APIA with false, fictitious, or fraudulent information is subject to prosecution under 18 U.S.C. 1001, which is punishable by fine, imprisonment or both.

I certify, under perjury, or of unsworn falsification in violation of AS11.56.210, that the statements made regarding the persons in my home and the income and all other items that pertain to my possible eligibility for benefits are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that awards are distributed for an individual or household. Trading or selling an award is fraud.

8. Client Rights, Responsibilities & Grievance Procedures

Client Rights

- To participate fully in the program and services you are applying for.
- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To have your eligibility for the services you applied for determined within the appropriate timeframe unless there are unforeseen circumstances and agreement is made to extend the time.
- To receive a fair and complete evaluation to determine eligibility.
- To have records and communication kept confidential. Information will not be released without written permission except under court order.
- To make informed choices during program participation.
- To appeal program decisions through an informal or formal review.

Client Responsibilities

- To keep appointments, be on time, and give proper notice if there is a need to cancel.
- To actively participate in the services you apply for and maintain regular contact with program staff.
- To treat program staff with dignity and respect.
- To follow through with recommendations and/or planned activities.

Disagreement Procedures (Appeal/Grievances)

If at any time a client disagrees with decisions made by Employment, Training & Related Services (ETR) Program staff:

1. Try to resolve the problem with the program staff directly.
2. If unsatisfied with the outcome, make a written complaint to the ETR Division Administrator describing the problem; you will be contacted within 10 business days upon receipt of written complaint to schedule a meeting to try to find a resolution.
3. If unsatisfied with the outcome, make a written complaint to the Department of Family & Community Development Director describing the problem; you will be contacted within 10 business days upon receipt of the written complaint to schedule a meeting to try to find a resolution.
4. If unsatisfied with the outcome, make a written complaint to the President/CEO describing the problem; you will be contacted within 10 business days upon receipt of the written complaint to schedule a meeting to try to find a resolution. The President/CEO will appoint a 3-member Grievance Committee to hear your grievance.

Client Statement

I have read the Client Rights, Responsibilities & Disagreement Procedures as described in this application.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
